South Carolina Arts Alliance (SCAA) is the state's primary, private sector arts coalition of Arts organizations, educators, administrators, artists, parents, business and community leaders. Our mission is to serve the Arts through leadership development and advocacy throughout South Carolina.

- Developing Leadership to advance all the Arts;
- Informing Public Policy development that impacts the Arts and Arts Education;
- Advocating Effectively for public sector support of the Arts and Arts Education;
- Building and Maintaining a base of advocates that are knowledgeable and proactive in support of state and national issues concerning the Arts and Arts Education;
- Coordinating an Effective E-mail Arts Advocacy Network featuring campaign alerts, updates and calls-to-action regarding state and national issues that impact the Arts and Arts Education;
- Utilizing Social Media to effectively grow civic engagement and give the Arts a broader voice on Facebook, Twitter and the SCAA web site;
- Hosting the Annual S.C. Arts Advocacy Day activities including a Statehouse Rally in the Lobby and a Legislative Appreciation Luncheon in honor of the Legislative Arts Caucus;
- Coordinating a South Carolina Team to National Arts Advocacy Day events in Washington DC;
- Providing Technical Assistance and leadership as a resource through workshops and conferences; advocacy tools and resources; contract administrative services; and as fiscal agents;
- Collaborating with diverse local, regional and statewide partners while representing South Carolina with national Art service organizations;
- Winning statewide and national recognition for outstanding leadership in advocacy & services;
